

PRESS HIGHLIGHTS

"This is terrific Oregon pinot noir, an exemplar of the sort of finesse and purity that sets apart the best Oregon pinot noirs from any others in America."

Matt Kramer, The Oregonian

"90 Points....one of the up and coming stars of Oregon."

Robert Parker, The Wine Advocate

"There are probably no Oregon Pinot Noirs more impressive in youth than Yamhill Valley Vineyards Pinot Noirs and none giving greater promise of aging potential."

David Rosengarten & Joshua Wesson
Wine and Food Companion

"There is nothing like having a Pinot Gris in Oregon, close to its source... we liked the Yamhill Valley Vineyards even before we tasted it because it smelled so rich and creamy."

The Wall Street Journal Guide to Wine

"Ripe, concentrated, black cherry nose, with hints of cumin and cinnamon... muscular and dense, with many layers of flavor, packed with personality."

"94 Points — Rated the fourth best Pinot Noir in America."

Wine Enthusiast Magazine

"Woodland berry scents... a lovely expression of earth and fruit. The flavors last, deep and savory, (and) moist and earthy as the Oregon woods... 92 Points

Wine & Spirits Magazine

"...stylish and aggressive...Yamhill Valley Vineyards Pinot Noir is big and well-structured, it is one of the finest in the state."

John Baxevanis, The Wine Regions of America
